SMC youth has 25 members, who have filled in the application form and are formally members of the SMC Youth. On the other hand there are more than 300 young members of the Modern Centre Party that will be asked to formally join the youth wing of the party. So far we have informed them about our work and invited them to our events, so we are trying to include and activate them in the functioning of the SMC Youth as much as possible.

Definition of a membership is defined in Article 6 of the SMC Youth Statute:

- 1) A member of the SMCY can become anyone, aged between 15 and 32, who fills in and signs the application form and accepts the statute and program of the SMCY.
- 2) An individual becomes a member of the SMCY at the moment when he is formally entered in the register of the SMCY.
- 3) A member of the SMCY can only be a member of the SMCY and the Modern Centre Party.

At the moment SMC Youth does not have any links with other organisations except the Modern Centre Party.

SMC Youth's only source of finance is party funding. The Modern centre party covers the cost of our projects and events.
