

Update

TIME TO SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY

Now is an excellent time for us to be seen campaigning hard across the city. Our profile and popularity will be enhanced by being seen to be working hard. Mike and Darren are very keen to be seen working across the city so we will be doing a few high profile events across the city, such as a blitz up of 'Commercial Road'. I will update you tomorrow. We are also hoping for a VIP visit next week, watch this space.

POLLS'

Polls, as they say, can go up or down and they certainly don't represent votes in a ballot box. However, it is nice to see the progression. These are the polls over the last five days by date, polling company and party percentage.

- 19th Apr Angus Reid Con 32% Lib Dem 32% Lab 24%
- 19th Apr ICM Con 33% Lib Dem 30% Lab 28%
- 18th Apr You Gov Con 32% Lib Dem 33% Lab 26%
- 17th Apr BPIX Con 31% Lib Dem 32% Lab 28%
- 17th Apr Com Res Con 31% Lib Dem 29% Lab 27%
- 17th Apr You Gov Con 33% Lib Dem 29% Lab 30%
- 16th Apr You Gov Con 33% Lib Dem 30% Lab 28%
- 15th Apr ICM Con 34% Lib Dem 27% Lab 29%
- 15th Apr You Gov Con 37% Lib Dem 22% Lab 31%

Interestingly we started to move up BEFORE the debate last week. After slowly rising since Vince Cable won the chancellors debate, ICM showed us up at 27% and the Conservatives down at 34% after our and the Conservative manifesto launch
