Overview

- Ample experience in formulating policies and shepherding them through negotiations and votes, including the formation of wide-ranging alliances behind policy proposals and brokering deals to win over other players while safeguarding the interests of my organisation.
- Team player with the ability to work side by side with people who have different profiles, strengths and weaknesses, and to help achieve the full potential of the team.
- Thorough knowledge of the internal dynamics of European politics as a whole and, more specifically, European party politics, including but not limited to direct experience as a member of the LYMEC delegations to the 2017 and 2018 ALDE Congresses.

Work

Since 2011 Freelance medical and pharmaceutical translator (EN/ES/CA/FR/NL > EN/ES/CA)

I provide businesses, research centres and public agencies in the pharmaceutical and medical sectors with translation solutions for clinical trial reports, pharmacovigilance alerts, regulatory files, summaries of product characteristics, scientific papers, etc. My work also involves preparatory literature reviews.
